COUNTRY Soviet dame of Cornsensy REPORT NO. 25 TOPIC Hilliary Information from being 25X1 DATE OF CONTENT. 15 and 15 h, Fil 1550 25X1 25X1 PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. a TWEE) REMARKS RETURN TO CIA LIBRAL: 25X1 1. The following observations were made in the /ritherthe kaserne, 2012, on 15 hpril 1550: a. Seven companies, each of 150 to 160 condiers wereful red-bordered black spealets, some with the mat Insignia, ware observed to full in at the barrocks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left after-and for the freight attacks made to seven already being entrained, descriptions of 10 a.m. and left after-and for the freight attacks made to seven already being entrained. Here are the sentioned that the barrocks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left after-and for the freight entrained. Here are the senting to bordered black cases were already being entrained. Here are the barracks yard were reported to the large part of the box of the b	ž	Approved For Release 187 182-00457R005100440004-7	 1	۳ 45
COUNTRY Saviet come of Germany REPORT NO. ###################################	nakanan Sandansa akan mengangan pada dan sahiri dan mengan Japa dan dalam dalam	01/477/19
The trucks were towing mine 76.2-ms guns and two field kitchers. 25X1 The trucks were towing mine 76.2-ms guns and two field kitchers. 2. The commandes which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 mm, and left after, and for free freight station was retined boxers and left after, and for the freight station was retined boxers and the station was retined boxers and the first at the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 mm, and left after, and for the freight station was retined boxers and boxers and boxers and boxers. The methy arriving troops boarded the boxers, 20 to 25 soldiers alood being output were in the barracks yard, about 40 soldiers alood being cut were in the barracks yard, about 40 soldiers alood being boxers. The methy arriving troops boarded the boxers, 20 to 25 soldiers alood being box were in the barracks yard, about 40 soldiers alood being boxers. The methy arriving troops boarded the boxers, 20 to 25 soldiers alood being boxers. The methy arriving troops boarded the boxers, 20 to 25 soldiers alood being boxers. The methy arriving troops boarded the boxers, 20 to 25 soldiers alood being boxers. The methy arriving troops boxers were the barracks yard, about 40 soldiers alood being boxers to the laisaterie Asserse. The document is boxers.	COUNTRY	S_viet 4one of Germany REPORT NO	production of the state of
DATE OF CONTENT, 18 and 15 A, ril 1550 25X1 25X1 PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) 25X1 1. The following observations were made in the friil cric haseme, beits, on 18 April 1550: a. Seven companies, each of 150 to 160 soldiers wearing red-bordered black speakets, some with tank indignis, were observed to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 a.m. 5X1 The trucks were towing mine 76.2-ms guns and two field kitchers to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 a.m. 5X1 The companies which were etill standing in the terracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left afternaris for the freight station where the sentioned trucing were already being entrained. Then two-regist flaterers and 25 box-cars were available. Some soldiers waring red-bordered black openiets with crossel-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxen. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxens; 20 to 25 soldiers per boxear. 25X1 c. In amnowed vesiels, any arently on SF Jun, and in armored vesicle lithous turret were in the barracks yard, about 20 soldiers stood benifies the cehicles. Fee soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Keserne. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regreted to Maching the part of the barracks to the Infanteric Keserne.		Military Information from Leitz	HANNES PERMANENTAL PROPERTY AND A PERMANENTAL PR	ACMANISTS OF S
DATE OF CONTENT, 18 and 19 A, ril 1950 25X1 PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS RETURN TO CIA LIBRAK: 25X1 1. The following observations were made in the intlicing haseme, metro, on 18 April 1950: a. Sowen companies, each of 150 to 160 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsilets, some with tank distingle, were observed to fall in at the barrecks yard at 9:30 c.m. 5X1 The trucks were towing nine 76.2-we guns and two field kitchers of the fall in at the barrecks yard at 9:30 c.m. 5X1 The commands which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left after. And for the relight station where the sentioned trucis were already being estimated. Thenty-cight flateurs and 29 box cars were available. Some saidiers wearing red-bordered black cyculets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxen. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxenrs, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxear. 25X1 The document is hereby regreated to be the ready in the barracks yard, about 20 soldiers about beside the tenticies. See soldiers waring red-bordered black equalities with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Asserte. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 The document is hereby regreated to because the confidence of the part of the pa			elantamentore, ciù mi all'ommengantico e e dines reamblement (d	oranona waa
The trucks were towing nine 76.2-wa guns and two field kitchers. 25X1 25X1 1. The following observations were made in the fritileric kaseme, Zeitz, on 16 hpril 1650: a. Seven companies, each of 150 to 160 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with tank insignia, were observed to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 s.m. 5X1 The trucks were towing nine 76.2-wa guns and two field kitchers. c. The companies, which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 s.m. and left after. And for the freight static period in the fact of the freight static period in sentioned trucks were already being advantaged. The style-dight laterare and 25 box care were avariable. Some soldiers scarring red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel indights were already in the boxer. The nextly arriving troops boarded the boxers, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxear. 25X1 c. In amored vehicle, apparently an SF can, and an arrapred vehicle thious turret were in the barracks yard. Jour 40 bordered black epaulets with them insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Asserts. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regreated to beginning the period of the boxers of the confidence wearing red-bordered black epaulets with them insignia marched from the barracks to be Infanteric Asserts.			25X1
The trucks were towing nine 76.2-ass guns and two field kitchers. 25X1 The following observations were made in the friilerie kaseme, zeitz, on 18 April 1950: a. Seven companies, each of 150 to 160 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsulets, some with tank insignie, were observed to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 s.m. 5X1 The companies which were still standing in the tearners yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 s.m. and left afternants for the freight station officer at 10 s.m. and left afternants for the freight station smaller in the tearners were already being estimated. The methy-eight lateours and 35 box care were available. Some soldiers scaring red-bordered black epsulets with crossed-gur-barrel ineight were already in the boxen. The newly arrivant troops boarded the boxens, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxear. 25X1 The document is hereby regrated to become the barracks yard about 50 soldiers stood beside the vehicle. Fee soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsulets with the barracks yard about 50 soldiers stood beside the vehicle. Fee soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsulets with the barracks yard about 50 soldiers stood beside the vehicle. Fee soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsulets with the barracks yard about 50 soldiers stood beside the vehicle. Fee soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsulets with the insignia marched from the barracks the barracks the formation the barracks the barracks the barracks the formation the barracks the	DATE OF CONTI	ENT. 18 and 19 A, ril 1550		*****
RETURN TO CIA LIBRAK: 25X1 1. The following observations were made in the Intilieric baseme, Zeitz, on 18 April 1950: a. Seven companies, each of 150 to 160 coldiers wearing red-bordered black epselets, some with tank insignia, were observed to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 c.m. 5X1 The trucks were towing mine 76.2-was guns and two field kitchers. c. The companies which were still sending in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left after and 5 for the freight station where the mentioned truchs were strongly being activated. Thenty-eight flatars and 29 box cars were available. Some soldiers were already in the boxen. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxears, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxear. c. In armored vendels, apparently in Sf pan, and an armored vendels itined turret were in the barracks yard, about 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicle. The soldiers wereing red-bordered black epselets with trans insignia marched from the barracks to the Enfanteric Massine. 25X1 This document is hereby regreated to Magning Tental Constitution.	Dett to the same	25X1 _{DATE PREPARED 16 May 1950}	all disabon di archi e sarren music entre dismontratore di sarrente di s
RETURN TO CIA LIBRAK: 25X1 1. The following observations were made in the intilieric haseme, Zeitz, on 18 April 1550: a. Seven companies, each of 150 to 160 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsulets, some with tank insigniz, were observed to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 a.m. 5X1 The commander which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left afternants for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatters and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsulets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxen. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxears, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxear. 25X1 o. In armored vehicle, apparently in SF Jun, and an armored vehicle attained turnet were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Yes soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsuless with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Insanteric Kaserne. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to Mighing a Chapt Control of the country of the product of		25X1	医全球性 化二甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基
The trucks were towing nine 76.2-was guns and two field kitchers. a. Seven companies, each of 150 to 160 soldiers weighing red-bordered black epsalets, sons with tank insignia, were observed to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 s.m. The trucks were towing nine 76.2-was guns and two field kitchers. c. The commanies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 s.m. and left afterwards for two freight station where the mentioned trucks were shrough being astrained. Thenty-edging flatears and 29 box-cars were available. Some scidiers wearing red-bordered black equalists with crossesi-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxear. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxears, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxear. c. In amored venicle, an around yard and an around venicle dithout turret were in the barracks yard. Sould so soldiers send beside the vehicles. Ten soldiers wering red-bordered black epsalets with true insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Asserts. CONSIDERTIMAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to	DAGES	2 FNCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)	1988年後の大阪・アンド・アン・アン・アン・アン・アン・アン・アン・アン・アン・アン・アン・アン・アン・	a Production and The following observations were made in the intilierie haseme, Zeitz, on 16 hpril 1950: a. Seven companies, each of 150 to 160 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with tank insignis, were observed to Isli in at the barracks yard at 9:30 s.m. 5X1 The trucks were towing nine 76.2-wes guns and two field kitchem. c. The companies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 s.m. and left after naries for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Then truy-eight flatours and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with crossesi-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxear. The neetly arriving troops boarded the boxears, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxear. c. In armored vehicle, apparently an SF gun, and an armored vehicle lithout turret were in the barracks yard, about 40 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Fun soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infantric Asserte. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regreated to become the content to the content was the content to be a content to the content to be a content to the content to be content to the content to be content to the content to be			。 	e roomen dia col
The following observations were made in the /rtilerie kaserne, Zeitz, on 10 April 1950: a. Seven companies, each of 150 to 160 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsalets, some with tank insignia, were observed to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 a.m. 5X1 The trucks were towing nine 76.2-was guns and two field kitchers c. The companies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left after-ards for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were alroady being entrained. Thenty-eight flatours and 25 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsalets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were alroady in the boxen. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxens, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxear. 25X1 c. An ammored vehicle, apparently an Sf run, and an armored vehicle althout turnet were in the barracks yard, about 20 soldiers shood beside the vehicles. Fen soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsalets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to be Infanteric Asserne.	KEMAKNO	OFTIDU TO	agentings by suppress the second seco	******************************
The following observations were made in the frtilleric Laserne, Zeitz, on 18 April 1950: a. Seven companies, each of 150 to 160 coldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with tank fasignia, were observed to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 a.m. The trucks were towing nine 76.2-am guns and two field kitchem. c. The commandes which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left after.ards for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were alroady being extrained. Thenty-eight flatators and 29 box-cars were available. Some addiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel insights were already in the boxear. The newly acriving troops boarded the boxears, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxear. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an SF cun, and an armored wendele though turnet were in the barracks yard, about 40 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ien soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insighia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Kaserne. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1	化生物性性 化二甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基甲基	KETUKN TO CIA LIBRAL	The state of the s	present en sur
The following observations were made in the /rtilieric kaserne, Zeitz, on 18 April 1950: a. Seven companies, each of 150 to 160 coldiers wearing red-bordered black epsulets, some with tank insignia, were observed to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 a.m. The trucks were towing nine 76.2-am guns and two field kitchem. c. The communies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left afterwards for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already approach being extrained. Thenty-eight flatuars and 29 box-cars were available. Some addiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxear. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxears, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxear. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an SF cun, and an armored vehicle though turnet were in the barracks yard, about 40 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Fen soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Kaserne. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1	CONTRACTOR PROGRAMMENT OF CONTRACTOR AND CONTRACTOR
The trucks were towing nine 76.2-mm guns and two field kitchers to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 s.m. The trucks were towing nine 76.2-mm guns and two field kitchers to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 s.m. The commands which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 s.m. and left after and for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatours and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers mearing red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxear. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxears, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxear. 25X1 This document is hereby segrated to Referry Document No. 25X1	SHEET SEED OF THE PARTY OF THE	25X1	gad neethoodaan deet weet word daar daar daar daar daar daar daar d	Lines years
The trucks were towing nine 76.2-mm guns and two field kitchems to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 s.m. The trucks were towing nine 76.2-mm guns and two field kitchems c. The communies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 s.m. and left after.ands for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatchers and 29 box-cars were available. Some saldiers wearing red-bordered black ephalets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxen. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxens, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxen. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an SF gun, and an armored vehicle ithout turret were in the barracks yard, about 40 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. The soldiers wering red-bordered black ephalets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanterie Asserne. This document is hereby segrated to become the comment to barracks to the Infanterie Asserne.
The trucks were towing nine 76.2-am guns and two field kitchens to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 a.m. The trucks were towing nine 76.2-am guns and two field kitchens c. The companies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left after. Ards for the freight station where the mentioned truchs were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatchers and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epacies with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. c. In armored venicle, apparently an SP gun, and an armored venicle ithout turnet were in the barracks yard, about 40 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. The soldiers warning red-bordered black epacies with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Asserne. CONSTRUCTION SECURITY CONSTRUCTION SECURETY CONSTRUCTION SE	1,	The following observations were made in the frtillerie kaserne,
The trucks were towing nine 76.2-am guns and two field kitchens. c. The communies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left afterwards for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatcars and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. c. he armored vehicle, apparently an SP gun, and an armored vehicle lithout turret were in the barracks yard, about 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Fen soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanterie Asserne. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1			4
The trucks were towing nine 76.2-was guns and two field kitchems. c. The commanies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left afterwards for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Twenty-eight flatcars and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers mearing red-bordered black epatiets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an SF gun, and an armored vehicle lithout turnet were in the barracks yard, about 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ien soldiers mearing red-bordered black epathets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Maserne. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Confident to be a secured to the Confident to be a secured to the confidence were already to the confidence of the co		hordered black enaulets, some with tank insignia, were observed
The trucks were towing nine 76.2-am guns and two field kitchers. c. The companies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left after.ands for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatance and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black equilate with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, an arently an SF gun, and an armored vehicle ithous turnet were in the barracks yard, about 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ten soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanterie Kaserne. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1		to fall in at the barracks yard at 9:30 a.m.	· · ·	_
c. The companies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left afterwards for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatcars and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an Sf gun, and an armored vehicle ithous turret were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ten soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Confident in the barracks in the barracks is the property of th	5X1
c. The companies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left afterwards for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatcars and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an Sf gun, and an armored vehicle ithous turret were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ten soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Confident in the barracks in the barracks is the property of th
c. The companies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left afterwards for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatcars and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an Sf gun, and an armored vehicle ithous turret were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ten soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Confident in the barracks in the barracks is the property of th
c. The companies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left afterwards for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatcars and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an Sf gun, and an armored vehicle ithous turret were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ten soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Confident in the barracks in the barracks is the property of th
c. The companies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left afterwards for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatcars and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an Sf gun, and an armored vehicle ithous turret were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ten soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Confident in the barracks in the barracks is the property of th
c. The companies which were still standing in the barracks yard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left afterwards for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatcars and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an SF gun, and an armored vehicle ithout turret were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ten soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Change in Case.		of 2 and two State witerers		J pard were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and left afterwards for the freight station where the mentioned trucks were already being entrained. Twenty-eight flatchers and 29 box-cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaciets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an SF gun, and an armored vehicle ithout turnet were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Fen soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaciets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Kaserne. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 were already being entrained. Thenty-eight flatcars and 29 box- cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an SP gun, and an armored vehicle ithous turnet were in the barracks yard. about 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ten soldiers wearing red- bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the bar- racks to the Infanteric Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Charles Inchart.		ward were reported to a high-ranking officer at 10 a.m. and Let	t .
cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaciets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia were already in the boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 25 soldiers per boxcar. 25X1 c. An armored vehicle, apparently an SF gun, and an armored vehicle lithout turret were in the barracks yard. About 40 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Fen soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaciets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1		ware already being entrained. Twenty-eight flatcars and ay box	•
25X1 c. An armored venicle, apparently an SF gun, and an armored venicle ithout turnet were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Fen soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanterie Kaserne. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1		cars were available. Some soldiers wearing red-bordered black
c. An armored vehicle, apparently an SF gun, and an armored vehicle lithout turret were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Fen soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Change in Class.		boxcar. The newly arriving troops boarded the boxcars, 20 to 45
e. An armored vehicle, apparently an SF gun, and an armored vehicle lithout turnet were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ten soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanteric Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Change in Class.	25¥1	Sold of Port Control	\neg vehicle ithous turret were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ten soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanterie Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Change in Chase.	25/(1			•
vehicle ithous turret were in the barracks yard. About 20 soldiers stood beside the vehicles. Ten soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanterie Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Change in Chase.		and an area of the second second second bordered black epaulets with tank insignia marched from the barracks to the Infanterie Kaserno. CONFIDENTIAL 25X1 This document is hereby regraded to No Change in Chase.		registal athous turnet were in the barracks yard, about av
This document is hereby regraded to No Change in Chass.		bordered black enaulets with tank insighia marched from the bar	· ••••
This document is hereby regraded to No Change in Chass.
This document is hereby regraded to No Change Ip Chass.		CONTIDUE STATE OF THE STATE OF	L 1
CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the				.]
		CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the	D) 25X1
Director of Central Intelligence to the Class Changed To TS		Director of Central Intelligence to the Class. Changed To	14 6 20A1	占

Next Review Date: 2008

	•
	ن .	Infanterie Kasorne:
		a. No change in the occupation was observed. A whit of about 800 troops meaning red-bordered black epaulets with crossed-gun-barrel insignia was cuartered there in the late aftermoon of 18 April 1950.
25X1 25X1		b. Lockers and other furniture were seen in front of a barracks building. for departure. for departure. converse were seen through the windows of a garage. Six canvas-covered armored vehicles, one reconsistance car and about
25X1 25X1		eight trucks were parked at the garages.
		c. The mentioned train was still standing at the freight station at about 10:30 p.m. without in engine. Its departure was not observed.
25X1		Consent:
		a. The report indicates that, besides the 67th Gus Merz Regt/20th Gus Merz Div arother unit (artillery?) of this division is stationed in Zeitz (the troops in the two barracks totaled at least 1,900).
		b. According to the report elements of the 67th Gds fleez kept were entrained on 18 April 1950, resumably for Ohrdruf, where the regiment held its 1949 exercises with its division.
25X1

25X1